- CESSATION CLASS: Smoking cigarettes? Want to quit? Want to make money while quitting? We have a class for you! Project EX is a teen smoking cessation class designed with you in mind. You can quit smoking, learn new strategies for living without tobacco and make money. What could be better? Call 244-7194 to sign up. Space is limited. The next class starts on March 2nd.
- SENIORS: The FAFSA, EHS Community Scholarship Application, and McConnell Scholarship applications are all due tomorrow. Don't miss out on financial aid! (Harris)
- PENNY WARS: Penny Wars are still going on and Haiti still needs our help so be a good American and donate your coins to a needy cause. Remember pennies are positive while silver and bills are negative so go to Rm 55 today! (Ray)
- INDIAN ED TUTOR: The Indian Ed Tutor will be available in the Library from 2:30-4:00 today and tomorrow. (Carmelo)
- LUNCHTIME DRIVERS: Reminder: If you haven't had your driver's license for over one year, a first offense is a $138.00 fine. That's a lot of lunch money! Remember, one year for safety! (Gisske)
- FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB: March 1st through March 5th is the official NATIONAL FOREIGN LANGUAGE WEEK! The Foreign Language Club has many activities planned, so please join us when you can! On the opening day of Foreign Language Week, our monthly meeting will feature Angela from Taiwan. All exchange students will be sharing "realia" which is an actual item that represents their country. Come check out the interesting things that will be on display from their countries. Some might have edible items, so stop by for a taste test of Tortilla Espanola from Spain, Brigadeiro from Brazil, fortune cookies from China, etc. Hope to see you today at 12 noon in Room 44! There will be a list posted on the 40-wing bulletin board of the other events for FL Week! (R. Burks)
- SOFTBALL: Softball tryouts will be held tomorrow @ 3pm. Players will need a cleared blue card in order to tryout. For more information, please contact Mr. Robinson in Room #37. (Robinson)
