JV AND VARSITY FOOTBALL

Attention all students interested in playing JV or Varsity football next season. There will be a mandatory informational meeting on Tuesday, January 15th at lunch in the small gym. We will be discussing our off season strength and conditioning program, spring football practices and summer workouts. If you plan on playing football next season, you need to be at this meeting. Contact Coach Combs if you have any questions

REMINDERS FOR ALL STUDENTS

Please remember there no hats, beanies, or head covering during the school day, except on Fridays an EHS hat or beanie can be worn.

Please be respectful to our maintenance staff and other students by keeping our bathrooms clean and free of trash. (Admin)

ATTENTION ALL HIGH SCHOOL GARDENERS

Are you looking to get your hands dirty? Come and be a part of the new EHS Community Garden Club. Stop by Chef Leedy's class to lunch to pick up a flyer and introduce yourself to the Garden Club President, it's kind of a big dill.

REGULAR DAY SCHEDULE

Monday, January 14, 2019

STUDENT SECTION

STUDENTS, PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Are you stressed from the holidays, the events of last year, or everyday life? Is your student stressed from the pressures of school or social media? Are you a teacher that is wondering how you are going to make it until June? Do you know stress is harmful to your body?

Come to the Parent Club meeting on Tuesday, January 15th at 6:00 in the ACC room, next to the Administrative Office. Dr. Molly Schneider, board-certified emergency physician and certified yoga instructor will explain the effects of stress on your body and show you ways to relieve that stress. We encourage you to bring your student and invite a co-worker or friend that could also benefit from Dr. Schneider's information.

HOMCOMING WEEK

Basketball Homecoming Week is next week! Students from each class will be nominating their fellow classmates for Homecoming Royalty this week in your Social Science classes. Voting will take place on the Thursday of Homecoming week. The dress-up days for Homecoming week are:

Tuesday, 1/22: Disney vs Nickelodeon

Wednesday, 1/23: Teachers vs Students (students dress as your favorite teacher!)

Thursday, 1/24: Rappers vs Rockers

Friday, 1/25: Black vs Gold

We will be having our Homecoming Rally on Friday, 1/25! Come out to the rally and all of the sporting events next week and show your school spirit.
