TODAY'S NATIONAL HOLIDAY

National Opposite Day! The one rule of Opposite Day is that everything should be done in the opposite way that you do on a normal day. Which means that you can celebrate the holiday by having breakfast for dinner or by talking backward. You can also put your clothes on backward, walk backward or say the opposite of what you actually mean. Just be sure to tell your friends, coworkers and family that you are celebrating this holiday – or things can get really weird really fast.
