TODAY'S NATIONAL HOLIDAY

March 18th is National Supreme Sacrifice Day. This day honors those that have made tremendous sacrifices for the sake and the good of others as well as those who sacrifice their lives every day for us. We may most readily call to mind the men and women in uniform who have laid down their lives protecting their country and communities. This day also honors those who may have stepped forward during times of crisis to rescue a stranger or a neighbor and gave the supreme sacrifice that day. These sacrifices don't always come in uniform and are often unsung.
